UVU PRESIDENTIAL REPORT TO THE COMMUNITY

2009-2014

A scenic mountain landscape with a sunburst effect over a valley. The sun is low on the horizon, creating a warm, golden glow that illuminates the scene. The mountains are rugged, with patches of snow and dense evergreen forests. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The overall mood is one of inspiration and resilience.

“This University is hardwired to overcome seemingly insurmountable obstacles with pluck and ingenuity. It is in our genes. We’ve been doing it since our inception in 1941, and look where we are today.”

— PRESIDENT MATTHEW S. HOLLAND

Dear Friends,

You may not know it yet, but Utah Valley University is one of the great educational success stories of the nation. As president of UVU, I feel it both my duty and honor to report to you — the public we serve — the new heights we have scaled.

For the past five years, it has been my privilege to work alongside a remarkable set of students, staff, and faculty who are transforming the educational and economic landscape of our community and beyond. I believe we are accomplishing this now with a unique dual mission, one that has established the breadth, rigor, and advanced training of a first-rate teaching university while retaining the access and trade and technical training of an open-admissions institution. In doing so, UVU now provides higher education for more Utahns than any other university in the state.

Key to this great achievement is the fact that student success stands at the heart of every program offered, every class taught, and every decision the University makes. Our formula for promoting this student success is a powerful combination of intellectual and professional seriousness about all we do, an active and practical engagement with the world around us, and an inclusive spirit of welcome for all.

As you consider the recent growth and innovation of this institution, and the marvelous accomplishments of our students and faculty, I invite you to enroll, invest, and engage with us for a future of even greater heights.

Warmest regards,

A GROWING CAMPUS

The UVU campus has transformed dramatically, adding nearly 700,000 square feet since 2009. With seven new structures completed in the past five years, and more on the way, UVU has grown at a rate that matches the achievements of its students. ▼

SCIENCE BUILDING

Completed in 2012, the Science Building has kept UVU on the cutting edge with 27 laboratory classrooms, 18 lecture rooms, 12 research laboratories, a rooftop greenhouse, and a 400-seat auditorium.

STUDENT LIFE & WELLNESS CENTER

With 170,000 square feet dedicated to helping students care for mind, body, and spirit, the new Student Life & Wellness Center features four stories of fitness areas, a 40-foot indoor climbing wall, six bowling lanes, a reflection center, and health and nutrition resources.

VIVINT BUSINESS RESOURCE CENTER

Created in January 2012 and home to UVU's new sales program, the center offers a variety of services to spur Utah's economic and business development. It also houses the state's No. 1 Small Business Development Center.

CLASSROOM BUILDING

In 2013 the University broke ground on the 244,000-square-foot Classroom Building to meet the demands of UVU's unprecedented growth. Scheduled for completion by December 2014, the building will include 34 classrooms, a 1,000-seat auditorium, and office space for UVU's expanding faculty.

225 NEW ACRES

UVU will transform 225 acres at the former Geneva Steel site in Vineyard into an educational oasis, effectively doubling the University's footprint in Utah County.

INTRAMURAL FIELDS

Ten acres at the Vineyard site are currently being utilized by UVU as intramural fields. The property is located 2.3 miles from the main campus along UTA's FrontRunner corridor.

WEE CARE CENTER

Completed in August 2013 and privately funded by the Barbara Barrington Jones Family Foundation and others, the Wee Care Center offers priority enrollment for children of UVU students in need. The center includes seven classrooms, a kitchen, a multipurpose area, and two playgrounds.

LIBRARY

More than a million patrons have entered the UVU Library each year over the last five years. With five floors, 190,000 square feet, and more than 180,000 collection items, the library empowers UVU students to achieve their academic goals.

ALUMNI & VISITOR CENTER

Purchased and renovated to house UVU's alumni and development units, the Alumni Center offers a warm and welcoming atmosphere for alumni and visitors.

PRELIMINARY ARTIST'S CONCEPTION

NEED FOR AN ARTS CENTER

UVU's School of the Arts boasts some of the finest programs and faculty in the country. UVU is launching a campaign to raise public and private funding for a much-needed center for the arts.

A CULTURE OF EXCELLENCE

Serious about making every program, activity, and professional service the best it can be, UVU has dramatically expanded its programmatic and curricular offerings with exceptionally trained faculty and students who are establishing prominent marks of achievement all over the nation. ▼

PERSONAL FINANCIAL PLANNING

The personal financial planning program is ranked in the top 10 nationally and has a 100 percent job placement rate.

RISING ABOVE THE COMPETITION

In 2012, aviation students placed third at the National Intercollegiate Flying Association regional competition, qualifying them for nationals, a feat virtually unheard of for first-year participants.

ACTING HONORS

In 2013 and 2014, the theater department captured back-to-back national honors at the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival.

CANCER RESEARCH

An internationally respected researcher, physics professor Tim Doyle has pioneered the idea of using high-frequency ultrasound to detect cancer cells during surgical procedures, resulting in more precise removal of cancerous tissue and reduced need for follow-up surgeries.

RODEO RECOGNITION

In 2012, two members of the men's rodeo team won national titles in bull riding and steer wrestling.

HANDS-ON EDUCATION

UVU's commitment to student success is evident in the wide array of engaged learning programs and resources offered across campus. Engaged learning at UVU combines the foundations of academic theory with the context of practical application, allowing students to rise higher and faster than their peers and graduate better prepared for professional and civic life. ►

AN ENGAGED DISTINCTION

Engaged learning at UVU means students graduate with a degree and a résumé full of real-world experiences to apply immediately to career opportunities. The Engaged Learning University Distinction allows students to demonstrate hands-on experience to potential employers, graduate programs, or other post-graduate pursuits with an official notation on their transcripts.

ENGAGING WITH SCIENCE

UVU prepares students to meet the demands of a rapidly progressing marketplace by teaching skills in the science, technology, engineering, and mathematics fields.

PARTNERING WITH BUSINESS

The Academy of Creativity and Technology was launched for business, design, and computer science students to partner with local business leaders searching for real-world solutions.

BUILDING PEACE

Peace and justice students organize conferences that bring awareness of global issues, healing, and conflict resolution.

SURVEYING THE HOLY LAND

Engineering graphics students partnered with Hebrew University in Jerusalem to digitally map and survey an ancient archaeological site home to countless subterranean chambers and tunnels.

DOCUMENTING DISABILITY

Digital media students traveled to Ghana to produce a promotional video for a nonprofit dedicated to helping children with disabilities.

MENTORING THROUGH SHAKESPEARE

English and literature professor Kate McPherson and students in her Shakespeare class mentor juvenile offenders at a local youth center through the study and performance of Shakespearean plays.

BUSINESS ENGAGEMENT

UVU's business engagement strategy, crafted by a panel of business, education, and civic leaders, utilizes practical strategies to help fuel the growth of local businesses.

UNIVERSITY PROJECT

The University Project for Civic Engagement is committed to addressing literacy and math achievement among K-12 students. UVU has an active partnership with Utah County United Way.

FOCUS ON AUTISM

UVU is dedicated to providing educational opportunities for individuals with autism and their families, as well as academic programs to train and certify professionals.

GLOBAL SPOTLIGHT

The Global Spotlight program, the Peace & Justice Studies program, and study abroad opportunities bring the global community to UVU and UVU to the global community.

HABITAT FOR HUMANITY

UVU's involvement with Habitat for Humanity of Utah County engages students, faculty, and staff as they provide service to the community.

PARTNERING WITH SCHOOLS

Gov. Gary Herbert, who signed STEM legislation at UVU this spring, learns firsthand about an after-school robotics program taught by UVU education majors.

VOLUNTEER & SERVICE LEARNING

UVU is dedicated to providing service opportunities for students that build a sense of community commitment and enhance academic skills.

ENGAGING IN THE COMMUNITY

UVU promotes engagement on campus and throughout the community at both the local and global level. Partnering in this way allows UVU to create more meaningful educational experiences of impact for thousands of students. ▼

GRANTS FOR ENGAGED LEARNING

UVU's Grants for Engaged Learning program has supported a wide range of engaged learning projects that strengthen the community in a broad and enduring way.

LATINO INITIATIVE

UVU is the largest provider of higher education for Latino students of all four-year institutions in Utah and was one of six institutions in the nation honored at the baccalaureate level by Examples of Excelencia for improving Latino student success.

NATIVE AMERICAN SUMMIT

UVU hosts the Governor's Native American Summit and has emerged as the higher education destination for American Indian students and communities in and around the state of Utah.

PACIFIC ISLANDER SUCCESS

Through the Cultural Envoy Dance Program, Moana Nui education conferences, and various community outreach initiatives, UVU is fast becoming a hub for Pacific Islander student success in Utah.

LATINO ENROLLMENT

WOMEN IN EDUCATION

UVU is committed to supporting research and services that encourage women to pursue education. The institution has concentrated its efforts on helping female students completing postsecondary degrees. ▼

WOMEN'S SUCCESS CENTER

The Women's Success Center offers women the support and resources they need to complete their degrees, increase financial stability, and positively impact society.

FIRST LADY'S LUNCHEON

Each spring for the past three years, first lady Paige Holland has hosted a formal luncheon for those interested in helping more women attend college and complete a degree.

NATIONAL EXPERT

Susan R. Madsen, a professor of management, speaks almost weekly in a variety of local and national forums and founded the Utah Women and Leadership Project.

ACCESS & OPPORTUNITY

As a regional state university, UVU provides access to a university-quality product while maintaining student focus and a core set of community college offerings. ▼

DIVERSE OFFERINGS

With 30 certificate programs and 63 associate degrees, UVU's vocational roots run deep by providing technical and workforce training.

VETERANS CENTER

In recognition of veterans who attend UVU, the University is currently developing a dedicated center to reinforce its existing services.

INTERRELIGIOUS UNDERSTANDING

Because religion often lies at the heart of cultural identity and relationships, the University is committed to finding ways to facilitate dialogue across various religious and secular perspectives. ▼

OREM INSTITUTE OF RELIGION

Students interact with LDS church leaders at the Orem Institute of Religion. The institute, located near campus, is one of the largest LDS institutes in the world.

BRIDGING BELIEFS

UVU invites local and national religious leaders, such as Eboo Patel, founder of the Interfaith Youth Core, and the Most Rev. John Wester of the Salt Lake Diocese, to speak on campus.

FIRST-GENERATION STUDENTS

UVU received a seven-year federal grant in 2011 to help low-income, first-generation college students.

SUPPORTIVE CAMPUS

The University is committed to providing the necessary programs to help students succeed in an increasingly complex, diverse, and globalized society.

UVU FOUNDATION

The UVU Foundation, under the direction of James Clarke, CEO and managing partner of Clarke Capital Partners, is a philanthropic group of community and business leaders who contribute expertise, experience, and financial resources to support UVU students.

SCHOLARSHIP CAMPAIGN

Cindy Oppel, who has multiple sclerosis and recently earned a business degree to financially support her family, inspired the University's need-based scholarship campaign, which raised more than $4 million in 2010.

$2M VIVINT PARTNERSHIP

UVU received a $2 million gift from Todd Pedersen and Vivint Inc. to establish a five-year partnership supporting professional sales education and research.

GROWING SUPPORT

The acquisition of private and public resources is critical to meeting the needs of one of the fastest-growing universities in the state, achieving UVU's fundamental mission of ensuring student success. ▼

PRIVATE FUNDING

The UVU Foundation manages a $58-million endowment fund and works to raise additional funds for University priorities. Over the past five years, the UVU Foundation has contributed nearly $41 million to help fund new facilities, faculty endowments, and student scholarships.

In 2013, the Council for Advancement and Support of Education named UVU the most improved fundraising program in the nation among peer institutions, based on the past three years of results.

FIVE-YEAR SCHOLARSHIP COMPARISONS

2005-09: $5.6M

2010-14: $10.6M

Thanks to the support of Gov. Gary Herbert, the leadership of Speaker Becky Lockhart and higher education appropriations co-chairs Sen. Steve Urquhart and Rep. Keith Grover, and the continued commitment of the Utah County delegation, UVU had a historic session on Capitol Hill in 2014.

HISTORIC STATE FUNDING

Following a multiyear effort, the Utah Legislature appropriated $50 million in 2014 to the Utah System of Higher Education for “acute equity” funding to narrow the funding gaps between state institutions, especially those growing at a rapid pace such as UVU. These resources will help ensure academic quality and meet the demands associated with growth.

$21M
“ACUTE
EQUITY” FUNDING

UVU received just over 42 percent, or $21 million, of the total amount appropriated. This year’s allocation from the Legislature brings UVU’s state funding per student to $4,361.

TAX FUNDS PER STUDENT

$2,871

2011-12
(Lowest in the state)

$4,361

2014-15
(Approaching the state standard of $4,800 per student)

TAX FUNDS AS PERCENTAGE OF UVU BUDGET

With 48 percent of UVU’s budget coming from state tax funds, UVU students are now shouldering less of the burden of the cost of their higher education.

ATHLETIC SUCCESS

On the field and in the classroom, UVU student-athletes are succeeding at the highest levels. There's never been a better time to wear Wolverine green. ►

BECOMING A DIVISION-I PROGRAM

UVU became the first institution to transition straight from junior college competition to the Division-I NCAA level. Attaining this status has led to greater exposure, scheduling, and recruitment opportunities for all athletic programs.

JOINING THE WAC

Entering the Western Athletic Conference means UVU can compete for conference and national championships, form regional rivalries, and qualify for NCAA postseason play. The Wolverines are already a powerful force in the WAC, winning three championships in their first year of competition.

ACADEMIC CHAMPION

In 2014, Holton Hunsaker was named an Academic All-American, the first NCAA Division-I men's basketball player in Utah to earn the honor since 1999.

FÚTBOL IS HERE

After a year of preparation, the UVU men's soccer team recently began its inaugural season as the only NCAA Division-I men's program in Utah. Led by former Real Salt Lake youth coach Greg Maas, the Wolverines' initial roster includes players from four countries and 10 states, including 18 from Utah.

ALUMNI MEDAL IN SOCHI

Former Wolverine athletes Noelle Pikus-Pace and Chris Fogt took UVU to the global stage at the 2014 Winter Olympics in Sochi, Russia. Pikus-Pace won the silver medal in women's skeleton, while Fogt claimed bronze in four-man bobsled.

MEN'S BASEBALL WINNING STREAK

In 2012, the Wolverine baseball team won 32 consecutive games, tying the second-longest winning streak in college baseball history. This included victories over local rivals BYU and Utah, as well as an upset win over eventual national champions University of Arizona. UVU's Goose Kallunki received consensus All-American honors and was drafted by the San Diego Padres.

WAC CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

In the first year of WAC competition, UVU athletes saw unprecedented success. The men's cross-country team claimed the school's first WAC title, while the men's basketball team finished the regular season as WAC champions and appeared in the NIT. The softball team won the first women's WAC title.

MEETING THE FUTURE

Whether planning for a growing student population or exploring innovative ways to deliver higher education, UVU is aggressively using its satellite campuses; evening, weekend, and summer schedules; and technology to meet the ever-changing needs of students. ▼
